

5th Annual
Encampment of Living History

Sponsored by
The Hays House Museum
of The Historical Society of Harford County, Inc.

April 16, 17, 18, 2004

Experience life as it was during the period of 1760-1840.

Come join in the excitement of an authentic historical re-enactors encampment.

Recreators of living history from around the mid-Atlantic region will make camp around the grounds of the historic Hays House. The encampment will include a variety of pre-1840 trades people who will demonstrate the professions, customs, crafts and chores of that time.

Demonstrations may include:

Bobbin Lace making
Candle making
Spinning
Blacksmithing
Basketry

Fur Traders
Period Cooking
Period Clothing
Music
Storytelling

Lead Ball Ammunition
Powder Horn Making
Militia (mock militia battles)
Longhunter Presentation (firearm safety)
Sutlers (period wares for sale)

Friday 9:00 am - 6:00 pm, Saturday 9:00 am - 6:00 pm
Sunday 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Admission:

Adults $5.00; Children 4 - 12 $3.00; Children under 4 are free

Food and beverages will be available.

All proceeds will benefit the historic Hays House.

This event is made possible in part by a grant from the Maryland State Arts Council and the Harford County Government through the Harford County Cultural Advisory Board. It is also funded by The Historical Society of Harford County, Inc. and receives support from the Town of Bel Air, the Harford County Board of Education, and the Bel Air High School. For information, please call: Stephanie Borneman 410-836-8652.